Explore Your Strengths and Challenges Discover and Connect to an Ageless Knowing

As women, we are far more complex and stronger than much of our society and culture want us to believe. Come together with other women to acknowledge your relationship with these aspects of yourself and find some surprises. Discover the power, humor, and honesty that are inherent in our natural feminine spirit.

Using Toni Wolff's model of the feminine psyche, discussions, expressive exercises, movie clips, and archetypal mapping, we will explore the complexity and majesty of being a woman. You will leave with a stronger understanding of and grounding in the energies that move through you, as well as how to use them in your world to create the life you want.
